SHERWOOD PARK

STORIES

---

Jackeya was about to eat her cheese & ham sandwich under white bread with mayonnaise that looked so delicious. But just before she took a bite I snatched it from her hands because I was furious that I didn't have anything to eat. So Jackeya gets up and starts chasing me through the school my hearts pumping so fast, I'm very nervous because Jackeya is a very strong person she could beat the living crap out of me. As I was running I tripped on a pencil and fell to the ground... hard. Then I heard these big huge steps and I start crawling to escape so I hide in the closet and she comes in and is searching for me. I'm breathing like my oxygen is getting lower and lower.

As she gets closer I am more nervous she opens the door slowly "screech." She looks at me I look at her and then she says "It's okay you can have my sandwich I brought another one." "Okay." Then we walk back to the lunch room.

Kayla told the teacher and the teacher told me can you please bring her the sandwich tomorrow.

The next day I came to school and I did not have her sandwich Kayla was so mad at me. I went up to her and said "Why is you so mad?" She said this is the 2nd day and I don't have my sandwich.

The day went on we did our work and Kayla was still mad when the teacher said it was time to go home. Kayla looked even madder.

The next day came it was Friday in the morning and I came up to Kayla and said you have a surprise coming at lunch time she already knew what it was.

Lunchtime came I went to my locker to get our lunch I gave Kayla the lunch and we went to go eat.

Lunchtime went on so Kayla was talking to me and was just talking about what she got on her test. I didn't care but I was still being respectful.

So 5 min went and I started to talk to her the lunch bell started to go off. She said "Sorry for slapping your brother." I forgave her.

The end of the day was here we said good bye and became good friends.

On Monday we was talking and having fun her and my brother was talking and having fun to.

We all just live happily ever after and became friends again.
