WGUV Production Receives Award from The Accolade Competition

(Grand Rapids, MI, October 14, 2009) WGUV is happy to announce that its production Antiques Roadshow: Behind the Scenes has received an honor from The Accolade Competition. The Accolades honor outstanding craft and creativity in film, video, television and commercials.

The production, which went backstage during the taping of Antiques Roadshow's August 2008 visit to Grand Rapids, received an Award of Merit in the Low Budget category.

During the taping, specialists from the country's leading auction houses and independent dealers from across the nation offer free appraisals of antiques and collectibles. Antiques Roadshow cameras watch as owners recount tales of family heirlooms, yard sale bargains and long-neglected items salvaged from attics and basements, while experts reveal the fascinating truths about these finds. The Behind the Scenes special features interviews with appraisers, producers, participants and host Mark L. Walberg. It was produced and edited by WGUV Production Manager Philip A. Lane and is hosted by WGUV Producer/Host Shelley Irwin.
